

The Medical Center Presents:

Best Practices for Opioid Prescribing

Melinda Joyce, Pharm.D., FAPhA, FACHE

Course Description: This presentation will discuss best practices for opioid prescribing, along with key concepts related to addiction and abuse of opioids. There will also be discussion of key metrics.

Access: Please watch the above mentioned enduring internet CME activity by utilizing the link below. After accessing the link, sort the educational recordings by selecting “Sort by Date” then choosing “Best Practices for Opioid Prescribing”

- <http://cme.chc.net/form.aspx?video=20220923BestPracticesForOpioidPrescribing>

Objectives:

1. Review the basic principles of addiction and misuse of substances.
2. Evaluate opioid use disorder.
3. Discuss the CDC guidelines for safe opioid prescribing.
4. Describe the red flags that may indicate a potential opioid use disorder.

Target Audience: Prescribers of Controlled Substances

CME Credit: The Medical Center at Bowling Green is accredited by the Kentucky Medical Association to provide continuing medical education for physicians. The Medical Center at Bowling Green designates this Internet Enduring activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

Contact: For questions, please call James Kingery at 270-745-1264

Estimated Completion Time: Approximately 1.0 hour

Method of Participation: Participants will view a recorded lecture

Hardware/Software requirements: High Speed Internet Connection

Commercial Support: There is no commercial support associated with this activity

Copyright: There is no copyright associated with this activity

Release Date: October 2022

Termination Date: October 2023

Disclosure Information:

In accordance with ACCME Standards, all individuals involved with the planning, presenting, or coordinating process of this activity, are required to disclose to the activity audience the presence of financial relationships with ineligible companies (those whose primary business is producing, marketing, selling, re-selling, or distributing healthcare products used by or on patients) that may present any real or apparent conflicts of interest related to the content of their presentation. Additionally, disclosure must be made when a product discussed in their presentation is still investigational or not labeled for the use under discussion.

The planners, faculty, and others in control of content for this activity have no relevant financial relationships with ineligible companies to disclose.